Seminar Description

---

Courting Success in Romance

For anyone wanting some tips on dating, courting, early marriage and long-term relationships.

ROMANTIC, as defined by one dictionary, means: marked by the imaginative or emotional appeal of the heroic, adventurous, remote mysterious, or idealized. What makes a romantic relationship a success? What are sure-fire ways to undermine any success? This course explores principles to cultivate growing tenderness, mutual respect, understanding and some delightful playfulness in your romantic relationship. Learn how to avoid typical pitfalls of: the altruism trap; the mind-reading trap; the love-test trap and the mismatched-hierarchy trap.

Learn some helpful skills and standing orders regarding romantic relationships:

- Partners as individuals first: selfishness vs. selflessness
- Growing together: skillful handling of self-doubts, defensiveness, vulnerabilities
- Attentiveness: context-giving and getting
  - Active romantic goal-setting
- Meshing value hierarchies; trade-offs: compromising within values
  - Revitalizing long-term relationships
  - Spontaneity, creativity and playfulness
